

30 School St.
Tilton, NH 03276
(603) 286-4342
tiltonschool.org

Spanish Faculty Position

(full-time, exempt, school-year)

Tilton School seeks an experienced and energetic World Language/Spanish teacher with a passion for developing student skills in critical thinking, communication, creative engagement, design thinking, and mindfulness. The position includes teaching four to five sections and collaborating with department colleagues to develop curriculum materials and robust, skills-based assessments.

Preference will be given to candidates who demonstrate:

- Outstanding skills in oral and written communication;
- Expertise in the integration of technology into classroom instruction
- Familiarity with Universal Design for Learning (UDL) and Understanding by
- An eagerness to work in an intense, changing and supportive learning community.

Applicants must be able to attend a week-long first Year Faculty Workshop in early August.

Other duties for this position include: advising, participation as an athletic coach or activities leader for two seasons each year, active participation in our residential program including, weeknight-weekend supervision.

Interested applicants should send a cover letter, resume and official transcripts and contact information for three references to: employment@tiltonschool.org

At Tilton School, all persons shall have the opportunity to be considered for employment without regard for race, religion, natural origin or ancestry, citizenship, age, disability, marital status, sex, sexual orientation, or any other category protected by state or federal law. The School does not discriminate on the basis of race, religion, national or ethnic origin, citizenship, age, disability, marital status, sex, sexual orientation, or any other category protected by state or federal law in the administration of employment practices or procedures, promotion, or application of employee policies and benefits.

For more information about Tilton School, please visit our website.