Athletic and Residential Life Intern

(School year 2022-23)

Tilton School seeks an Athletic and Residential Life Intern who will coach three seasons and participate fully in our residential life program. Qualified candidates will have experience working with students in a residential setting (camp, college or boarding school). They must have substantial experience in high school and/or college athletics. They must demonstrate a commitment to their own growth and the growth of their student-athletes. In residential life, this position will serve as a driver for the health center, a duty team member on one weekday night as well as every fourth Friday and weekend. Preferences will be given to candidates who demonstrate:

- Outstanding interpersonal and communication skills
- An abiding belief that all students can grow and succeed
- Ability to work well in a student-centered program
- An eagerness to work in an intense, changing and supportive learning community

Interested applicants should send a cover letter, resume and contact information for three references to employment@tiltonschool.org

Ideal candidates would want to pursue careers in boarding school education, athletic department leadership or residential programming.

Preferred coaching experience or interest in the following:

- Soccer
- Basketball
- Tennis
